

Romantic Suspense from Rose Senehi ...

Pelican Watch is a multi-faceted love story told against a backdrop of murder and suspense, laced with the flavor of South Carolina's lush low country and the unforgettable people who work to preserve it.

“Romance, murder, family issues and ecological activism are woven though this tale set along the SC coast. ... likeable protagonist ... supporting cast also adds welcome flavor ... page turning beach book ... Try Pelican Watch if you're a Mary Alice Monroe fan looking to tap into some summer Southern literature.”

– Jennifer Parker, The Sun News

“Pelican Watch has everything I look for in a great read: colorful sentences, memorable characters, and a plot that keeps you turning the pages. It's a book I gladly and joyfully recommend.”

– Cassandra King, author, The Sunday Wife

“This is a love story [and] a rip-snorting mystery ... Sure, it's a romantic suspense story, but the real story is about love for the South Carolina LowCountry and the tough, mellow people who live there ... Two murders and an exploded fishing boat later, the dénouement solves the mystery and brings the lovers together. ... The story itself, however, is all about the island: its saltwater creeks and harsh, tangled grasses, the dolphins playing in fishermen's bow waves, and tides that sweep anything out to sea into oblivion. ”

– schuyler kaufman, Carolina Mountain Living

“Senehi adds enough romance that'll keep you turning the pages well after the sun has gone down over the Intracoastal.” --Elle McGee, Charleston Magazine

“Senehi weaves a murder around her other well-wrought subplots, qualifying this novel not only in the genre of a hair-raising page-turner, but also as one of the best “Chick Lit” novels out there. Her characters are original and quirky, her dialogues zesty. It is obvious that Senehi has a well-honed sense of comic timing also. --Patrice Tappee, Rapid River Magazine, Asheville, NC
